

Advertising with the Division for Early Childhood (DEC) offers prime exposure to educators, practitioners, and families in the field of early intervention, early childhood special education, and related disciplines.

The Division for Early Childhood has been a credible force in EI, ECSE, and related disciplines since 1973. By advertising with DEC, your company will receive attention from DEC members seeking out current events and relevant industry issues and trends in EI/ECSE and related fields. We offer a variety of advertising platforms, giving you the opportunity to reach and impact the lives of professionals, educators, and families in the special education community.
